EDITORIAL NOTES.

It will be the 10th day of June when this edition of the SENTINEL sees the light of an Arizona summer day. Between this date and the 4th of July there will be an interval of ten days. These ten days will be a time of great national importance to pass unrecognized. By an observance of them, be it never so modest, we join hands in spirit with our countrymen in all parts of the land; and the very consciousness that wherever our flag waves American people are engaged in the same act of remembrance, is of itself sufficient to cement the ties of brotherhood, and make us a thoroughly united nation.

The Postmaster-General has suggested that newspapers be transmitted through the mails free of postage. This is a move that will be seconded by people who read, in all parts of the country. The Government has paid annually thousands of dollars for the transportation of public documents, many of them to newspaper offices, but the dissemination of information by this method has been limited. While these extremely interesting Patent Office Reports help to fill the shelf of the country editor's library—in fact, often constituting it—the good they do to the general public is infinitesimally small. The newspaper business of this country deserves this encouragement at the hands of the Government. We are to-day suffering under the ban of one of the most oppressive monopolies, and one from which Congress could easily relieve us. The protective tariff on wood pulp, from which white paper is made, has more to do with making financial failure of the publishing business than any other one cause. The great mass of American readers would be the gainers should this recommendation be adopted.

The reporter for a Tucson paper went to a wedding, the other night, where they kept the poor liquor until the boys got pretty full; and when he got back to the office he wrote: "The best man was M. A. Kerr and the bridesmaid." Everything considered, this is not so bad. Had he said that M. A. Kerr was the bridesmaid and the best man; or that M. A. Kerr was simply the bridesmaid, he might have laid himself open to more serious criticism. If, however, he had come out frankly and acknowledged that in his modest opinion the bridesmaid was the best man in the whole outfit, he could not have found a man in the Territory rash enough to contradict him.

The Earps have sent word that they have the republican party boxed up on ice, and will return it, a little tainted but still whole, in time for the fall election.—Star.

Yes; that is the truth—or as near it as a democrat can conscientiously come on political matters. The box will be here on time; but what the republicans want of the box is another thing. It will be used to pack away, in a strong brine, the remainder of the cowboy democracy at the fall election. They are too fresh now, but unless we are mistaken salt-peter will not save them twenty-four hours after election day.

TERRITORIAL.

From our Exchanges.

The Marcus mine, Weaver tract, belonging to the N. Bates, is being prospected in thorough manner, and will, it is believed, yield a high grade of ore. Mr. Bates is prospecting on his line between Prescott and the Atlantic and Pacific R.R. His contract commences July 1, 1882. He is purchasing young California horses for service, and will work six on each drive between stations, which are to be arranged at short distances, one from the other. The time from Prescott to the railroad at Simms will not exceed ten hours.

The crops in Peeples' Valley are well advanced and look admirably well. The farmers of that fertile valley, if the grasshoppers do not interfere, will, this season, no doubt, reap a rich reward for their labor. Cattle, horses and other animals of the valley also look well.

The insurance companies sustain a loss of $330,000 by the Tombstone fire.

A private letter from Tombstone says no such activity was ever displayed in Arizona before, as is shown in that town since the fire, in building of all kinds. Money is plenty and business lively.

The product of Arizona silver mines, at the present rates of production, will this year exceed twenty millions of dollars.

Snow still lingers on the peaks of the San Francisco Mountains, some seventy miles north of Prescott. The "beautiful" shows up well from almost any eminence in town.

Mr. E. P. Clark, auditor of the territory, just returned home from the mountains north of the line of the A. & P., reports lively times up there. The new saw mill, which will make from 75,000 to 100,000 feet of lumber a day, will soon be set running. It is near Flag-staff, where an artesian well is being sunk.

A petition is in circulation in Cochise County, asking the Board of Supervisors to make suitable provision for having the minerals of the county represented at the Denver Exposition. That is a move in the right direction.

The Tombstone Epitaph says that owing to the temporary depression caused by the fire, it would be well if the Board of Supervisors would immediately direct the construction of the new court house, already determined upon. A great many idle men would be employed, and a large sum of money circulated in the city and neighborhood.

It is related of a caricaturist who was illustrating the novelist Balzac's works, that on one occasion he came upon a difficult and involved passage so abstruse that he took it to the author with the humble remark: "I don't exactly catch the sense of this."

"Let's see it!" said the novelist. "Oh there's no meaning to it at all; that's why I put it in." "Why you put it in?" "Exactly. You see for the average reader all that is clear seems easy, and if from time to time I didn't give him a meaningless word or a complicated and sententia, he would think that he knew as much as I did. Consequently every now and then I put in something heart-breaking, and he puzzles over it, and takes his head between his hands and groans at it, and then when he reads my happy and witty and brilliant Judge Cox pronounced death upon the assassin, John W. H. said the condemned would "die game." He is of a different opinion now. Pale, nervous and trembling like a whipped spaniel, the coward paces the floor of his cell, wringing his hands and talking incoherently. The air of bravado is gone, and sleep has forsaken him. "Cowards die many times before their death." If his terrible agitation continues, at the end of a month there will be little left of him to hang.—Ex.

Mr. James Parton says that a curious circumstance occurred many years ago, when a testator in England left £2,000 to a friend, but with the condition that one-half the sum should be buried with him in his coffin. The legatee took advice on the matter. "Where is the money now?" asked his friend. "In the bank," was the reply. "All right," said the adviser; "write a check for £1,000 and put it in the old man's coffin, payable to his order."

PILLS FOR PILES!

A Sure Cure Found at Last! No One need Suffer!

A sure Cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams, (an Indian remedy), called Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderfully soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electrocautery do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night, after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry of Cleveland says about Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used scores of Pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment."

For sale by all druggists or mailed on receipt of price, $1.00. HENRY & CO., Proprietors, 63 Vesey street, New York City. McCarthy & Osborne, wholesale agents, Denver, Colorado.

Numerous politicians and a few able editors have been sorely troubled about President Arthur's visit to New York. They have tried to convince themselves and the public that he was making up a "slate," and was engaged in other treasonable projects, notwithstanding the plain, and positive announcement from his friends that the president's mission had nothing to do with politics. It is wonderful how every movement of the President now effects the nerves of those self-lauding, superlative patriots who not long ago spent most of their time attempting to show
